

Does your club want to help with Days for Girls (DFG), but not sure how to start? There are many different ways you can support Days for Girls. Start with the basics. To determine the closest center to your club, copy the URL for your state and then paste it into your browser to find the Days for Girls Centers in your state.

If you are fortunate enough to have a center close to you, they are always looking for volunteers, sewers and non-sewers alike. Contact the center to find out their hours of operation and if there are any sew-a-thons planned.

If there is not a center close to you, you can support centers directly by making direct tangible or monetary donations. Contact the center to inquire if they have an Amazon wish list or click on the "donate here" button on their page. You can also do a collection at your meetings and send items to a center. (on the center link).

You can also make a donation to the main office at this link (if it doesn't open when you click on it, copy the link and paste it into your browser).

The DFG website contains a wealth of information. website: <https://www.daysforgirls.org>. If you live near a center, consider having the coordinator come to a meeting and give a presentation. You can also collect supplies that can be given directly to your guest speaker.

BUT remember, there are specific guidelines for items such as panties and washcloths. Always check before you buy.

Participation for this project can be reported for the Dr. Nina Fay Calhoun International Relations Award.

Thanks again for all your efforts related to this important health and literacy project! If I can help in any way, please let me know. My email can be found in the DSB.
